iPack page 72

1 Look, share, learn.

- Use the iPack to show the picture or ask students to look at the picture in their Class Book. Encourage students to share their knowledge with the class by naming some of the things they can see in English. Ask them to think about types of transport, rooms in a house and objects in a house.

ANSWERS

Students can see a bike, a car, a plane, a kitchen, a living room, a bedroom, a dining room, a bed, a vase, a table, a mirror, a picture, a robot, a poster and some books.

- Tell students that they are now going to learn eight new phrases. If you are using the iPack, present the new language using the interactive activity.

Class Book pages 72–73

2 Listen, point and repeat. 130

- Ask students to look at the picture on page 72. Play the recording for students to listen and point to the children doing the different chores.
- Play the recording again for students to repeat the phrases.

Optional activity

Use the Vocabulary poster to review the words. Then play a game of What's missing? using the flashcards (see Ideas bank page 170).

3 Listen and say. 131

- Tell students that they are going hear the sound of people doing different types of housework from exercise 2. Play the recording, pausing after each sound for students to say the correct phrase.
- Play the recording a second time for students to listen and say the phrases again.

Audio transcript

The sound of someone loading a dishwasher.

4 Play the Mime game.

- Ask students to read the conversation. Explain that they must mime a chore from exercise 2 for their partners to guess. Their partner can ask questions, as in the conversation.
- Students take turns to mime and guess the phrases.

5 Look and choose for each room.

- Ask students to look at the pictures. Choose a student to name each of the places.
- Do number 1 as an example. Elicit the correct answer wash the dishes. Check students understand they have to choose the right answer from two options each time.
- Ask students to look at the rest of the places and tell their partner the housework that we do there.

ANSWERS

7 Hoover 8 clean

6 How do you help at home? Give yourself a point for each thing you do.

- Ask students to read through the list and tell their partner the chores that they do at home. If a student does a chore that is not included in the list and it can be described in English using known language, e.g. clean the bath or wash my clothes, allow them to add it to their list and gain bonus points.

ANSWERS

Students' own answers.

KEY COMPETENCES: Citizenship

Thinking about how they help at home focuses students' attention on how to be responsible citizens.

Giving themselves points for every way they participate encourages them to engage actively.

GLOBAL SKILLS: Emotional self-regulation and well-being

Having specific chores to do at home helps children develop a sense of responsibility and builds self-discipline. Discussing the topic of helping at home will encourage students to become more involved in helping with the housework.

You may also wish to assign jobs or roles for different students to do in the classroom. The students doing the jobs can be changed every week so that everyone has a turn.

7 Listen and repeat. 🎧 132 Then ask and answer.

- Focus on the conversation. Play the recording, pausing after each line for students to repeat.
- Ask students to work in pairs. They take turns to ask and answer about how they help at home.
- Go around the class as students talk, helping and correcting where necessary.
- Discuss the activity with the class. Choose two or three students to report back on themselves and their partners. Then ask students to think about what other chores they could help with. Invite suggestions from different students.

Team Task! 1

- Students ask and answer about helping at home to complete the survey table and record the results in the bar chart.
- If appropriate to your classroom, encourage students to do their survey online.

Activity Book pages 70–71

CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT: Students discuss the learning objective in pairs and then complete the record sheet to assess their learning for the lesson.

Lesson 2: Grammar

Learning objective

Students will be able to talk about how they helped at home last week.

- Repeat with other students until all of the flashcards are on the board.
- Ask What are we learning about today? Invite ideas from different students.
- Ask students to look at page 74 of the Class Book and find the learning objective: Let's talk about how we helped at home last week.

Class Book pages 74–75

1 Listen and follow. 🎧 133 Then act.

- Focus on the pictures in the cartoon story. Choose students to identify the characters and say what they can see.
- Play the recording for students to listen and follow the story.
- Choose students and ask When did May clean the car? When did she cook the dinner? Did she wash the dishes this morning? What did she design?
- Play the recording a second time for students to follow again.

- Play the recording for students to listen and follow the sentences.
- Ask How do the verbs end? Draw attention to the -ed endings in pink.
- Read the explanation in the Look! box to the class.
- Play the recording for students to listen and follow again.
- Ask students to read the verbs and tell their partner the past simple forms by adding -ed to the end.

ANSWERS

We make the past of regular verbs by adding -ed to the end. cleaned, watched, washed, played, cooked, listened

3 Listen. 🎧 135 Who watered the plants?

- Ask students to look at the pictures. Ask a different student to identify the chore represented by each one.
- Tell students that they are going to hear the different people in a family talking about the housework they did last week. They must listen and point to the chores each person did.
- Play the recording, pausing if necessary, for students to point to the pictures.
- Play the recording again for students to choose, or check, their answer to the question. Establish that all of the family watered the plants.

Audio transcript

Danny In our family, everyone helps at home. Let's find out what we did last week! OK, Mum. What were your jobs?

Mum OK, well, I hoovered the floors. I washed the car and I washed the dishes. Oh! And I watered the plants last Tuesday.

Danny Thanks, Mum. Alright. Dad?

Danny Right. So finally ... me. (I'm Danny.) I cleared the table. And I helped Dad cook the dinner. And I watered the plants yesterday ... Oh dear! We all watered the plants!

ANSWER

They all did / everybody

Optional activity

Explain that the -ed endings of past simple regular verbs can make one of three sounds: /d/, /t/ or /ɪd/. Play the recording from exercise 3 again, pausing after each of the phrases. Say the verbs for students to repeat, focusing on the sound of the ending. Then say the whole phrase for students to repeat.

4 How did you help at home last week? Talk with your partner.

- Focus on the text in the speech bubble and read it aloud for the class.
- Ask students to work in pairs. They take turns to tell each other about what they did last week.
- Go around the class as students talk, helping and correcting pronunciation where necessary.

KEY COMPETENCES: 🌐 Personal, Social and Learning to Learn

Students consolidate their learning of the vocabulary and grammar of the unit in a personal way. Sharing their own personal response promotes learning from their peers.

5 Look, listen and learn. 🎧 136 How do we make the past negative?

- Play the recording for students to listen and follow.
- Ask students to look at the affirmative and negative forms. Draw attention to the differences: with the positive, we add -ed to the end of the verb. With the negative, we use didn't in front of the verb, but we don't add -ed to the end.
- Ask students to work in pairs. They take turns to read the sentences in the grammar box.
- Ask How do we make the past negative? Choose a student to answer.

ANSWER

We add didn't before the verb. We don't add -ed to the end of the verb.

6 Look and choose a or b.

- Ask students to look at the pictures. Ask questions and choose different students to answer, e.g. What did Dad do last Friday? What did Bella do? What did Mum do last Saturday? What did Danny do?
- Ask students to work in pairs. They take turns to read a sentence and say a or b to match the picture.

ANSWERS

1 b 2 b 3 a 4 a 5 b 6 a

Mixed ability

Confident students, who finish quickly, can make their own negative sentences for their partner to say a or b.

7 Work with your partner. What did you do and what didn't you do today?

- Ask students to read the speech bubbles and complete the second sentence using the past simple negative. They then tell their partner full sentences, using the past simple positive and negative forms of the activities in the list.
- Walk around the class as students talk, helping where necessary.

ANSWERS

I designed a robot.
I didn't hoover the floor.
I played video games.
I didn't clean my room.

4 Take turns to describe a new path through the maze in 3.

- Ask a student to help you model the dialogue for the class.

MEDIATION:

Students work in pairs. They take a different path through the maze, taking turns to describe each of the things they have to do to prepare.

This allows them to process the new vocabulary in a personal way, and collaborate with each other to facilitate communication.

ANSWER

Possible answer:

First, you have to invite guests. Then you have to go shopping. Next, you have to decorate. Finally, you have to set the table.

5 Look, listen and learn. 140 Who had to dress up?

CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT:

Using your usual feedback routine, check how confident students are with the new grammar. If further practice is needed, ask them to go to the Grammar check section on page 130 of their Activity Books and complete exercise 3. See page 145 of this book for the Grammar check answers.

7 Listen and follow. Then sing. 🎧 141–142

- Ask students to look at the song. Remind students of how the coloured words are substituted to make the second verse.

- If you wish, ask the students to close their books. Play the karaoke version of the song for students to sing the words from memory.

Team Task! 3

- Students use the party planner guide, taking turns to ask and answer the questions with a partner.

KEY COMPETENCES: 🧑🏫 Citizenship

Planning a party encourages students to think about what makes other people happy. Asking and answering questions helps them to listen to others and show respect for other people's ideas. Learning how to collaborate with their classmates will help them to participate successfully in other social groups outside school.

Activity Book pages 74–75

Students will be able to read and understand a story about helping out.

Language

Vocabulary and grammar from Lessons 1–3

Starting the lesson (optional)

- Sing the song from the end of the previous lesson with the class.
- Play a game of Sing the next line (see Ideas bank page 170).
- Play the karaoke version of the song for students to sing their own verse with the new phrases.

Lead-in

- Ask students to imagine they have to help prepare for a party. Ask What do you have to do? Elicit the vocabulary from the previous lesson and encourage as many suggestions as possible in addition to the phrases from the previous lesson, e.g. make a shopping list, go shopping, Hoover the floor, cook the dinner, bake cupcakes.
- Ask students What do you think today's story is about? Choose two or three students to make suggestions.
- Ask students to look at page 78 of their Class Books and find the learning objective: Let's read about helping out.

iPack pages 78–79

1 Look at the pictures. What are the animals doing? Tell your partner.

- Ask students to look at the story. Read the title of the story to the class. Use the pictures in the story to teach or elicit the meaning of the word farmyard. Ask Which animals live in the farmyard? (a horse, goats, chickens, a donkey, a cat, ducks)
- Ask students to work in pairs. They look at the pictures without reading the story and take turns to make sentences about what the animals are doing, e.g. The ducks are swimming.

MEDIATION:

In this exercise, students use their own words to interpret the pictures, working in pairs.

More confident students can add information about how they think the animals are feeling.

ANSWERS

Possible answers:

The ducks are swimming. The cat is sleeping. The donkey is decorating. The donkey is preparing food. The donkey is tidying up.

2 Listen and read. 🎧 143 Who worked hard? 🎧

- Tell the class that they are going to watch or listen to the story. Focus on the pictures and ask the question Who worked hard? Invite two or three students to make suggestions.

- Play the video or the recording for students to follow the story. Choose a different student to answer the question Who worked hard?
- Play the video or recording a second time for students to follow again. If you wish, play the story a final time for students to enjoy.

ANSWER

The donkey worked hard.

Class Book pages 78–79

3 Read again and point to the jobs in order.

- Ask students to read the story again. They point to the jobs in the order in which they are mentioned in the story.

ANSWERS

c tidy up e decorate a go shopping d prepare food
b dress up

Mixed ability

Ask less confident students to work in pairs. They find and tell their partner the phrases in the story, then use them to help point to the pictures in order.

Let students who finish quickly use their answers from exercise 3 with sequencing words to talk about the order of events in the story, e.g. First, the donkey had to tidy up. Then he had to decorate the farmyard and go shopping.

4 Who said it? Choose.

- Ask students to work in pairs. They read the pieces of speech to each other and choose the animals that said them. They reread the story as necessary.

ANSWERS

1 the horse 2 the donkey 3 the ducks 4 the cat
5 the goats 6 the horse

Think, feel, grow

- Focus students' attention on the task and read the questions aloud. Ask students to think about the answers.
- Choose a student to answer the first question. Establish that the donkey is upset because none of the other animals helped to prepare for the party. He is also sad because the party isn't any fun without guests.
- Look at the second question and choose a student to answer (The animals helped to tidy up).
- Ask students what lesson they think the animals have learned. Draw attention to the horse's words at the end of the story: It's better when we all help out.

ANSWERS

Students' own answers.

KEY COMPETENCES:  Personal, Social and Learning to Learn

Talking about how the animals feel through a story context develops students' ability to be empathetic and understand others. Focusing on the importance of collaborating and helping each other develops a useful life skill that they will be able to use both inside and outside of the classroom.

GLOBAL SKILLS: Communication and collaboration

The story reminds the students of the importance of sharing work and rewards. The animals learn that it isn't fair to let just one of them do all the work and the donkey learns that a party is only fun when it is shared. Discuss with the class why it is important to share work and what happens if one person does all the work. Encourage them to speak in English as much as possible, but allow them to use their own language if necessary.

Optional activity

Ask students to work in pairs or small groups. They think about how the other animals could have helped the donkey with the party preparations. They tell each other a list of jobs for the different animals to do, e.g. ducks: tidy up, cat: decorate ...

5 Act out the story.

- Divide the class into groups of eight, with one student for each of the following parts: the narrator, the donkey, the horse, the cat, the ducks (x2) and the goats (x2). As a group, students decide who should take each part. If the class does not divide exactly, some of the students can have more than one part. Smaller groups are also possible if there is only one duck and one goat.
- Ask students to act out the story. Walk around the class as they work, checking pronunciation and helping with any problems.
- Ask some of the groups to act out the story for the class.

Team Task! 4

- Students look at the pictures and read the sentences. They use the words in the box to complete the story.

6 Read the story at home.

- Ask students to read the story again at home. If possible, they should read it aloud to their family.

Activity Book pages 76–77

1 ★ Look at the pictures. How did John help with the housework?

3 ★★ Read again and match the sentences to the people.

- Students read the story again and match the housework to the different characters.

ANSWERS

1 John 2 Dad 3 Carla 4 Mike

4 ★★ Write T (true) or F (false).

- Students read the sentences and mark them true or false, rereading the story as necessary.

ANSWERS

1 T 2 F 3 F 4 T 5 T 6 T

5 Complete and colour.

- Students complete the sentences and smiley faces. They then rate the story by colouring the stars.

ANSWERS

Students' own answers.

CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT: Students discuss the learning objective in pairs. They then complete the record sheet to assess their learning for the lesson.

Lesson 5: Skills and Culture

Learning objective

Students will learn about family festivals in the USA and Japan.

Language

Family members: daughter, grandparents, parents, son

Starting the lesson (optional)

- Ask students to think about their families. Ask Who is in their family? What do they look like? What do they like doing? In pairs, they take turns to tell each other about their family, e.g. I've got one brother. He's 16. He likes sport. He plays football twice a week ...
- Ask some of the students to report back to the class.

Lead-in

- Ask the class to look at the photos and try to work out which countries they will be learning about today (the USA and Japan). If there is a map in the classroom, ask students to find the two countries on it.
- Ask students to think about what the learning objective might be. Then ask them to find it on the page: Let's learn about family festivals in the USA and Japan.

Class Book pages 80–81

1 Listen, point and repeat. 🎧 144

- Play the recording for students to listen and point to the photos.

That's Dylan. Dylan is Uncle Joe's son. He's five.

Thanksgiving at our house is noisy and fun.

ANSWERS

CULTURE NOTE: Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is an American festival which celebrates the harvest of the previous year. It is thought to date back to the early 17th century, when a group of English settlers shared a meal with the native Wampanoag people.

For American families, Thanksgiving is a time to be together. The festival is celebrated with a traditional meal of turkey, potatoes, cranberries and pumpkin pie.

- Tell the class that they are now going to hear Henry talking in more detail about Thanksgiving.
- Ask students to read through the sentences in their Class Books.
- Play the recording, pausing for students to choose the correct words in each sentence. If appropriate, have students write the answers in their notebooks.
- Play the recording a second time for students to follow again and check.
- After each sentence, choose a student to say the correct answer.

Audio transcript

Thanksgiving in our family is always a big holiday. We have a big family. My grandparents come to our house, and I have lots of aunts, uncles and cousins! Everyone helps out! First, we invite our guests. My sister does that. She likes to make cards for everyone.

Before the holiday, we have to go shopping. Grandpa and Grandma do the shopping at the big supermarket.

They bring the food to our house, because Mom and Dad cook the dinner. Last year, Grandpa and Grandma cooked the dinner, but usually my parents cook.

But we help them! My cousins and I all help to prepare the food! Then we eat a huge meal. After the meal, the children clear the table, and everyone helps wash the dishes.

Thanksgiving is lots of fun.

ANSWERS

MEDIATION:

This exercise requires students to work in pairs to interpret and relay information about the relationships between the people shown in exercise 6. Encourage students to help each other in expressing their ideas in English, but allow them to use their own language if necessary.

7 Listen and read. 148 What is the same about Thanksgiving and Grandparents' day?

- Play the recording for students to follow Yukiko's text.
- Ask students to discuss the question What is the same about Thanksgiving and Grandparents' day? in pairs.
- Choose two or three students to share their answers.

ANSWERS

Possible answers:

CULTURE NOTE: Grandparents' day

The tradition of Grandparents' day in Japan began in 1947, when the small town of Haka-Cho held a festival to honour the older people in the community. The idea quickly became popular and in 1966, it became a national holiday.

Many other countries around the world also have a special day for grandparents, including the USA, Australia, Brazil and Spain.

Establish that with dance and bake, they should add -d. With tidy, they should remove the -y and add -ied. Ask students to write down the past forms of the verbs and then use them to make new sentences.

Once confident students have finished, ask them to turn to page 79 of their Activity Books and complete exercise 3.

11 Plan and write about a family festival in your country.
