

WRITING GOAL: Write a Description

A description gives details about a person, a place, or a thing. These details help the writer paint a picture in the reader's mind.

Writing Tip

Use details like number and color words to give more information in your description.

Get Ready to Write

A Read the description. Underline the details.

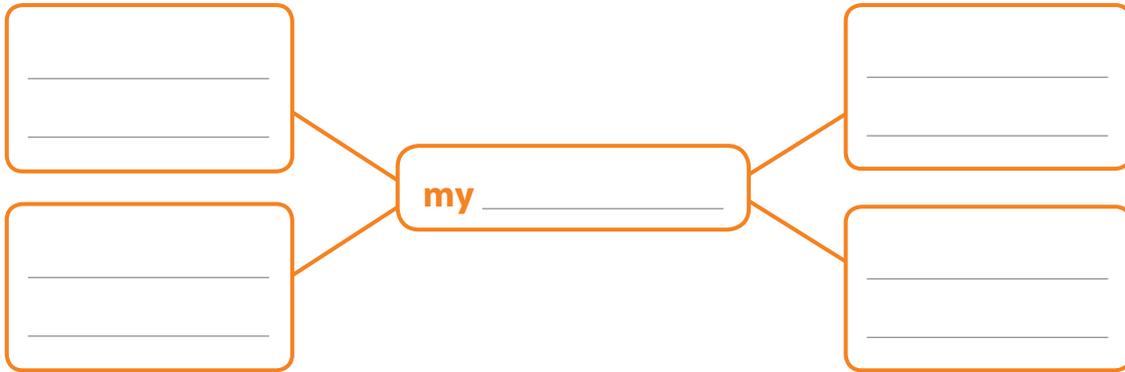

I'm decorating my white shoes. First, I paint two red hearts. Then I paint three yellow stars. Next, I paint one blue flower. I do the same for the other shoe. I like my new shoes because they're colorful!

B Read the description. Write the number and color words.

I'm going to make my own shirt!
First, I paint _____ circles.
Then I paint _____ squares.
Next, I paint _____ triangle.
I like my new shirt because it has many shapes!

Write

C Think about painting another art project. Write the number and color of things you want to paint. Complete the diagram.

D Now write a description about your art project. Remember to use details like number and color words.
