

How do things change?

1 Everything in our world comes in three states; solid, liquid, or gas.

2 Lots of everyday things can change, but only some change state.

3 Things can be mixed together to make something new.

4 Sometimes you can separate a mixture, and sometimes you can't.

