1 Read the email. Why does Yasmin like Paris? Choose the correct answer.

- a You can easily get everywhere in a short time.
- b There aren't many cars in the streets.
- c You can visit great museums, parks and shops.

New Message

Hi Lina,

How are you? I'm staying with my cousins, Alba and Jules. They live in Paris. It's a big city, but everything – like the station, cinema, cafés and restaurants – is close. This is because Paris is a 15-minute city, that means you can walk or take the bus to important places in under 15 minutes.

Here, every morning, we buy fresh bread in a small shop at the end of the street. It's a bakery and they also sell cakes. Then, we ride our bikes to the park. Sometimes, we take the bus and in 10 minutes we are at a shopping centre or a museum! Living in a 15-minute city is easier than living in a small town like mine.

Alba and Jules go to different schools. Alba's school is closer, so she can get there in 8 minutes on foot. Jules takes the bus, and he's at school in 12 minutes. Isn't that great? For me, getting to school is more difficult. There isn't a bus stop near my home, so my dad drives me every morning. It takes us 25 minutes because there's a lot of traffic.

I hope I can live in a 15-minute city in the future!

Talk soon!

Yasmin

Unit 3 Listening

03 Listening 3

In today's presentation I'd like to talk about five of the most famous places for travel photos.

First, there's the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France. It's 330 metres tall and offers great views of the city. At night, it's bright with all its lights on.

Next, there's a more modern and colourful place - Times Square in New York, USA. There are bright neon lights everywhere and a lot of tourists. It's a very busy part of the city, but it's safe, even at night.

The next place is the Colosseum in Rome, Italy. It's the biggest amphitheatre in the world. It's almost 2,000 years old. Today, it's an exciting place to visit, but in the past - very dangerous!

Then, there's the Taj Mahal in Agra, India. It's a beautiful white building and it looks amazing in photos. The best time to visit is early in the morning when the sun comes up.

Last on the list is the longest structure in the world - the Great Wall of China. It's often noisy and full of tourists, but there are quieter parts of the wall, too. They're perfect for a walk - and for taking photos of course!

Unit 4 Listening

04 Listening 4

Host Hello! Welcome to the holiday show, Let's go! Today, I've got a special guest on the line! Hi Martina!

Martina Hi!

Host Martina, thanks for calling us! Where are you at the moment?

Martina I'm on the island of Bornholm in Denmark. My parents, my brother and I are on a cycling holiday.

Host Fantastic! Can you tell us what it's like? What are you doing now?

Martina Well, I'm calling you of course, but my family are sitting on the beach and having lunch. We cycle between 15 and 20km each day, so we need to take regular breaks.

Host That's amazing. Are you planning to cycle round the whole island?

Martina Yes, it's 104km so it will probably take us about a week.

Host Do you feel tired after cycling all day?

Martina No, I don't. I'm an active person. At home, I play basketball and volleyball and I do gymnastics four times a week. Actually, we don't cycle here all day every day, we do other fun things, too.

Host Like what?

Martina We play golf and go surfing or kayaking. Bornholm is a great place for water sports. The sea is cold, so I don't go swimming, but my brother does. In the evening, we play table tennis or badminton.
